

Russian Oil and Mineral Resources Immediately After the Collapse of the Soviet Union: Personal Experiences as a Consultant

February 1, 2013

12:00—1:00 Niles Gallery

Professor Richard Westin
Professor of Law
University of Kentucky

Join Professor Westin as he speaks of his experiences as an American Consultant to the Russian Federation. Professor Westin worked as a consultant in the oil, gas and mineral industries immediately following the collapse of the Soviet Union.

Richard Westin joined the College of Law Faculty in 1998. He holds BA and MBA degrees from Columbia University and graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Law School as a member of Order of the Coif.

UK
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

AS
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY
COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Sponsored by: the Department of Modern & Classical Languages, Literatures & Cultures, the Department of History and the Arts & Sciences Advisory Board